THIS IS OUR STORY >

From a spare bedroom to

A World Leading Translation Corporation

Established by a group of enthusiastic brothers in their spare bedroom, in 2004, Talkbridge has rapidly become one of the top companies. We have maintained a family-friendly, corporate culture across all of our offices that are now spread across six continents, including Europe, America, Australia and Asia.

We pride ourselves of employing more than 100 highly qualified professional linguists all over the world and for having earned the trust of very distinguished clients in over 70 countries!

We care

We are a large family and that is why we instinctively care so much about our clients. Luckily for us, that is one of the reasons why decision-makers all over the world hire us in an instant.

We listen, learn and love to help, just like an older brother does.

We are also good at keeping secrets. We have strict procedures for protecting client's data, reinforced by clauses in our Terms and Conditions.
